Place 3

Laura Voltmann

Laura Voltmann, Senior Planner in the City of Fort Worth Planning and Development Department, was elected to the Fund Board in 2011 by City Group C employees. She is a member of the Disability Committee.

Laura began working for the City soon after graduating from the University of Texas at Arlington with a Master's degree in City and Regional Planning. She earned her Bachelor's degree in American Studies from the University of Texas at Austin.

In her first three years with the City of Fort Worth, Laura worked with the development review team in the Planning Department. For the past three years, Laura has staffed the Urban Design Commission overseeing development within the City's form-based zoning districts, including the Near Southside. In this role, she works closely with property owners, developers, architects and community members to build consensus on projects before submission to the Urban Design Commission. She also coordinates with infrastructure-related departments in the City to ensure projects move forward in a timely manner.
